Justin of the Cosmos June 30 19

Chapter 1

San Francisco, 2003, a boy goes on a stage to present 4Idiots Entertainment. The boy said, “4Idiots Entertainment is the greatest entertainment thing on the planet. They show us all our favorite anime as well. They censor it and they make it more appealing to the average American viewer.” A bully kid in the auditorium said, “Boo! 4Idiots sucks.” The boy on stage said, “No it does not.” A nerd kid sitting next to the bully kid said, “Actually, it does. Most of their changes don't make any sense at all.” The boy on stage said, “I will show you!” The teacher grabs onto the boy's chest and she said, “Tommy, you are wrong. They are right. 4Idiots really does live up to its name. I think you should stop watching 4Idiots and maybe do something better like wash my car and wax my feet.” The teacher shows Tommy her dirty feet. Tommy is pulled to the front driveway of the teacher's house and the teacher sits on the porch and drinks some lemonade and reads a magazine while Tommy washes her car. Tommy said, “One day, they will all see that I am right. 4Idiots is the very thing I stand for.” Tommy gets a series of flashbacks of him watching 4Idiots on Saturday mornings. Tommy said, “No one can ever take away the thing I love the most.” Tommy sees a crowbar sitting on the side of the gutter. He looks inside the teacher's car and he sees she left the keys in the ignition. He looks at the porch and he sees the teacher has fallen asleep. A light bulb appears over Tommy's head. Tommy takes the crowbar and he smashes the window and he jumps in the driver's seat and he takes off.

He goes on a joyride through the town. He hits a mailbox and he runs down newspaper stands that say, “4Idiots really is 4 Idiots.” Tommy keeps driving fast and police cars begin to follow him. Tommy takes out a banana peel and he throws it behind him and the police cars slide around in the banana peels. Tommy keeps flooring it. Tommy crashes into the side of a bank and he gets out. Guards come out and they aim their guns at Tommy. Tommy gives the guards an innocent look and he said, “I didn't do it.” The guard said, “Do you really think I am going to buy it?” Tommy tries to punch a guard and his punch does nothing. Tommy tries to fight the guards and the guards kick Tommy's butt. Tommy falls to the ground all beat up. The police come and they are about to handcuff Tommy. Just as Tommy is going to get handcuffed, a man in a mystic robe appears out of a vortex and he fights off the guards and the police. Tommy sits back and watches this happen. The mystic man defeats all the police and guards and he turns to Tommy. The man said, “I am Mystika. I am the defender of conflicted people for all over the cosmos. You interest me. I have a better idea for you. I want you to take my hand and come with me.” Tommy shakes in fear. Mystika said, “Don't worry little one. I won't hurt you.” Tommy takes Mystika's hand and Mystika zips into the sky and he takes Tommy into space. They fall through a vortex and they come on the other side where they see a futuristic city in space. Mystika takes Tommy to a temple in the city. Mystika said, “Now Tommy, welcome to your new life. I am your teacher now. I can give you the greatest gift of all time.”

Chapter 2

Orlando Florida, 2112. In a green garden with fountains and waterfalls and flowers and trees, Justin stands in it. He walks around the garden and he jumps and grabs onto a tree and swings from it and he lands on both of his feet. He rolls on the ground and he is about to roll into a lake but he walks over the lake. Justin zips across the lake and he is stopped on the other side where the ground meets the lake by government agents in black suits and sunglasses. The lead agent said, “Stop right there, Justin.” Justin said, “More of this? I though this was all over.” The agent said, “I am Agent Q of the IBI. The IBI request for your help at once.”

Justin is in an office with IBI agents. Agent Q said, “A few days ago...” He shows Justin a holographic image of the galaxy. Agent Q said, “We received unusual energy signatures from this side of the galaxy. We think this may be an alien invasion from a species we have never encountered before. We think it may have originated in another galaxy or maybe even another universe.” Justin said, “Let me guess. You want to bring me there to stop this alien invasion threat.” Q said, “Not exactly. We are actually building a new defense outpost in orbit of earth. It is ready to go now and we need people to test it out in case earth becomes becomes dead within the next few years. We are sending you and your friend, Larry there to watch over the place and test out the new functions that it serves.” Justin said, “That sounds very easy. What's the catch?” Q said, “There is no catch. Just do this job and you will get paid $70 000. Here is a pamphlet of the place.” Justin is given a pamphlet and he reads through it. He sees that it contains food places and gaming sections and entertainment sections and a movie theater.” Justin said, “I guess I am in. When do we launch?” Q said, “Tomorrow at nine. I will have the two of you be there then.”

Justin and Larry are strapped into the passenger section of a space rocket. Justin said, “Thirty seconds to launch.” Larry said, “I would hate to be at the butt of the rocket when it gets launched.” Justin said, “Yeah and you would hate to be at your mother in law's house when she bakes those oil drill bits with bleach and gear cleanser.” The rocket launches into space. It gets high in the sky and then it is in space. It then connects with the orbital outpost. Justin and Larry get off the rocket and they are at the docking terminal at the orbital outpost. Justin and Larry get through and they see there is a large fully fledged city in the outpost. Justin and Larry's eyes go big as they see all the things it has to offer. Larry sees an all you can eat buffet. Larry zips there. Justin said, “I guess I will check out the movie theater this place has after I unpack our things.”

Justin brings his and Larry's luggage to their living section. Justin puts everything away. Justin sees the rooms are plain white and they are very shiny. Justin looks into the floor and he sees his reflection in it. Justin said, “I never would have guessed that a floor could be this shiny.” Justin looks out the window and he gets a view of the futuristic city. Justin sees there is a switch on the window. He flicks it and it changes to an exterior view of the outpost. Justin looks down on earth. Justin said, “I was there not that long ago and now I am here in space.”

Justin gets a large container of popcorn and a large barrel of cream soda and he takes his seat at the movie theater. Adds for futuristic things related to the outpost are shown on the screen. Justin looks at the clock he has imbedded in his arm. Justin said, “When is this movie actually going to start?” The screen said, “And Now the Feature Presentation.” Justin said, “Finally, we are getting somewhere.” It shows a planet in space and it shows two astronauts on the surface of the planet in a strange galaxy. They dig into a rock and they find a purple gem. The lead astronaut said, “We have found what we were looking for.” The sidekick tugs on the commander's space suit and he said, “Commander, they found us.” The commander looks in the sky and he sees alien invaders in star fighters that look like white triangles. The commander and his sidekick begin panicking. Justin said, “This is lame. This looks like something I have seen with Larry over 550 times.” Larry said, “551 times now.” Justin looks next to him and he sees Larry is there with an even larger tub of popcorn and a larger tub of cream soda. Justin said, “When did you get here?” Larry said, “When the previews and commercial crap ended.”

Chapter 3

Justin and Larry keep watching the stupid movie and then the triangle ships blast through the screen and the screen is destroyed and they are in the movie theater flying around and destroying things. Justin freaks out and Larry said, “This is the greatest movie ever. It has real action in it.” People flail their arms around and they run around and scream. One man jumps and he smashes through the wall. Justin said, “I don't think this is part of the show.” Justin grabs onto Larry and he pulls Larry out of the theater. Larry said, “We were just getting to the good part.” Justin and Larry are in the lobby and the triangle ships fly around and attack the place. They deploy white armored soldiers and they shoot at more things. Larry almost gets hit by a shot. Justin and Larry hide behind some debris. Justin said, “I should have known something like this would happen. We deserve more than $70 000 for this.” Larry said, “We are getting paid $70 000?” Justin said, “That's what I was told.” Outpost defenses try to fight off the white suit bad guys. One of the defense people get thrown off and he drops his weapon and it rolls over to Justin and Larry. Justin picks up the weapon and he rapidly fires it at the bad guys. Justin said, “Larry! Make a run for it!” Larry runs through a swarm of bad guys and he knocks them all down. Larry bends around his shape and he knocks down more of the bad guys. Justin shoots some of the bad guys off.

Justin and Larry are in the main part of the outpost that looks like a mall. People run around in fear and the floor begins to fall apart. It is a breach with space and things start getting sucked down the chasm in the floor. Justin turns on his magnet feet. Justin said, “Good thing we were built with magnet feet.” Larry said, “We were? I thought that was a gimmick so I took them off and replaced them with these roller skates.” Larry activates his roller skates and he grabs onto Justin. They see a cloaked mystic figure appear. The figure walks to Justin and Larry and he stays completely still even though everything is getting sucked out the floor. The figure reveals himself to be Mystika. Mystika said, “Justin. You don't know me but I know you. I need your help.” Justin said, “Tell me what is going on here.” Mystika said, “No time to explain. You just need to trust me.” Justin struggles to stay put and he magnets in his feet fail and Justin and Larry plummet out the chasm and they fall into space.

Justin and Larry are in the vacuum of space. They see the outpost getting destroyed. They watch the outpost explode and debris from it rains all over. Larry said, “Now what are we going to do?” Justin said, “We just have to stay out here until someone recovers us or until someone smashes us or until the end of time. It will be which ever one comes first.” Larry said, “We androids have infinite patience.” Justin said, “Now is the time to test that.”

A few hours later, Justin and Larry are still in orbit of earth. They see a cluster of asteroids and they land on an asteroid. Justin and Larry get up and they walk around the asteroid. Justin said, “This looks just like that planet from that movie we were watching.” Larry said, “I wonder if there is a purple gem here or something better.” Justin said, “I doubt it. I wonder why there would be a rock like this out in orbit of earth.” Justin and Larry explore the rock some more. They see a rectangular prism container. Larry said, “What's that?” Justin said, “Let's find out.” Justin and Larry head for the container and they see a man stuck in it. Larry said, “Who is he?” Justin said, “Well, he has short curly hair and he is in a purple suit with a tie and he has a pin on his suit that says, 'DDD News' on it.” Larry said, “You mean that news source that gives us bogus stories all the time.” Justin said, “I guess so. There is something familiar about this man.” Justin gets a flashback to Justin's Revenge when he was watching DDD News. He sees a gold statue of the man that is frozen in the container. He remembers there being a plaque that states his name is George Ferrier. Justin said, “George Ferrier.” Larry said, “What?” Justin said, “This man is George Ferrier. I think he was a news reporter for DDD News a hundred some odd years ago.” Larry said, “What is he doing up here?” Justin said, “That's what I want to know.”

More triangle ships come after them. Justin and Larry freak out. More and more of the triangle ships come out and they surround the asteroid. Larry covers his head and he said, “You win. We surrender. We will give you anything.” Justin said, “There is something odd about this. They were attacking the outpost and they are not attacking us.” Larry said, “Yeah, they are not attacking us. What gives with this?” Justin jumps and waves his arms around and a triangular transport ship lands and Justin and Larry bring George Ferrier into the transport. The transport takes off.

Justin and Larry are in the transport and they see it is piloted by a knight with two flags on his armor and they are the forty-eight state US flag and the Canadian Red Ensign from 1957. Justin said, “What is going on here?” The knight turns around and he puts the transport on autopilot. The knight said, “I am Justice Knight. I am a Knight that travels through time and space to correct the wrongs of time travel. I have been summoned here by a mystic monk called, Mystika.” Justin and Larry look at each other. Justice Knight said, “Mystika said, he would be at the outpost we were supposed to attack but there does not seem to be any reading of him.” Justin said, “Could you tell us what is going on here?” Justice Knight said, “I will.” Justice Knight tells the story and it shows what is happening as he speaks it. Justice Knight said, “A powerful cosmic god known as, Space Lord has emerged on the opposite end of the galaxy. He has powers to persuade regular average people into believing his opinions and thoughts on things are true. He has subjugated entire planets in the cosmos. He has turned several peaceful civilizations into planets filled with his slaves that live and work only to serve Space Lord. He also does this with help from his right-hand man, The Platinum Skater. Some people have the courage to stand up against the Space Lord and those people are punished by the Platinum Skater. With my help, a lot of the people on those planets managed to form a rebellion against Space Lord. We have our own planet and we have people in white suits and white triangular fighters fighting for us. I will take you there and you will learn more." Justin said, "I guess we don't have any other choice." Larry looks at George Ferrier. Larry looks around his container. Larry said, "How are we going to get George Ferrier out of this thing?" Justice Knight said, "I have a container smasher in the back there somewhere. You may be able to use that." Larry takes the container smasher and he puts George Ferrier in it. His container is smashed. George Ferrier is freed. George Ferrier said, "This is DDD News here at the scene of... What scene is this and where is this and..." Justin said, "A lot has happened and even we don't know everything." Justice Knight said, "I'm taking us to the rebel planet of Eden Vern. We will learn more when we get there."

Chapter 4

They arrive on Eden Vern and they see the place is all green and lush and there are very few buildings there. Justice Knight leads Justin, Larry, and George into the main building which is cylindrical shaped. They gather around a projector with other rebels from all over the galaxy. The projector turns on. Justice Knight stands in the center of the room. Justice Knight said, "We have brought us new recruits from the remains of Space Lord's space outpost in orbit of earth. Space Lord has sent agents to earth to establish a base in space where he could continue to brainwash the people of earth. I went there and lead our forces there and we have stopped that from happening. Mystika was at the scene but he has been lost and no one knows where he is. Our intelligence states that there is an expert on Space Lord and he works in the Intergalactic Circus. I will go there with our new recruits, Justin, Larry, and George and we will go to the circus. People may be suspicious seeing a Knight with two robots and a news reporter going to the circus. We will just have to join the circus and be part of their acts. Do you have any skills, Justin and Larry?" Larry said, "Of course we do." Larry squashes and stretches his body around and he morphs into a spring and he jumps in place and he morphs back into his shape. Larry said, "Here's a joke, why did the dummy fall off the chair and the moron didn't fall off the chair?" Everyone watching this said, "Why?" Larry said, "Because he was a little more on. Get it?" Crickets chirp and no one laughs. Larry looks into a microphone and he said, "Is this thing on?" Justin said, "We practice comedy all the time. We know what them circus folk like. This will be easy for us."

Justin, Larry. George, and Justice Knight are in the back room. Justice Knight said, "What kind of weapons do you have with you?" Justin said, "I just have my strength and these ray guns I have stored in my back." Justice Knight said, "What about you, Larry?" Larry said, "I don't need weapons. I can morph into so many things." Larry morphs into a sword and he falls to the floor. Justin said, "That's a cool sword you have there, Justice Knight." Justice Knight said, "This is my only weapon. It is a sword. It is carved from Ruby Stone thousands of years ago by the ancient developers of your world. It is written that only he who is worthy can lift up my sword. You want to try?" Justice Knight throws his sword to the floor and it stays there still. Justin tries to pick it up and it does not move at all and it does not even budge. Justin said, “How do you lift this? It is so heavy?” Justice Knight said, “Clearly, you are not worthy.” Larry said, “Let me try.” Larry morphs muscles on him and he tries to lift the sword and it still does not budge and he pulls all his muscles. Justice Knight said, “You can try to lift it all you want but you will never lift it up unless you are worthy.” George Ferrier puts on a suit from the Space Corps. It is white and has a picture of a planet with triangles orbiting it. George Ferrier takes a ray gun from a cabinet and he spins it around in his hand. George Ferrier said, “I never thought I would have a job zapping things in space.” Justice Knight said, “This is not just a simple job. This is your life you are fighting for. If we do not stop this, Space Lord, he will brainwash everyone in the universe into believing in him and becoming his slave. The entire universe is depending on us to stop this monster.”

The team arrives at the circus grounds. They see tents set up everywhere and they see clowns juggling light up balls. Justin said, “Who are we looking for exactly?” Justice Knight said, “Rex Rummington. He is the owner of the circus and I think he can...” They see Rex stand in front of them. He said, “Are these the new circus members?” Justice Knight said, “They are. They are the new circus members that we pulled out of the mad house last week.” Rex looks at Justin and Larry. Rex said, “I think these guys are perfect. Let's get suited up.”

Justin, Larry, and George put on clown suits and they get on stage. They practice around with circus gear with other members of the circus. They jump through hoops of fire, they dodge spears, they walk over spikes, and they try to lift 5000 tons. Rex said, “It looks like you guys are perfect for this circus. Let me show you what this place can really do.” Rex, brings, Justin, Larry, and George into a control room. Rex takes the controls and he moves the planet as if it were a star ship. Justin, Larry, and George look at the sky and see planets and stars zip by. The planet is sent to a part of space that is gray and has slaves working like dogs on large platforms. The planet moves into the center of a large stadium and millions of various people watch the stage and they cheer on. Justin, Larry, and George take a big gulp. Larry said, “Do you think this is part of the plan?” Justin said, “I trust Justice Knight knows what he is doing.” George said, “This looks larger than anything I have ever reported in all my years at DDD News.”

The Platinum Skater skates through space leaving a large streak behind him. The Platinum Skater orbits the stadium and he said, “To all the people of the Space Lord Domain, welcome to the circus.” Everyone cheers. Platinum Skater said, “Everyone bow down as it is the king of all kings himself, Space Lord.” Space Lord enters the scene and he is larger than the circus planets and he is large and strong and lightning flashes off him. Space Lord sits down in a cosmic seat. Space Lord said, “Let this thrill of the anime circus, begin!” Space Lord takes a large bottle of wine and he takes a katana sword and he slashes the bottle with it and it completely shatters and bits of glass rain all over space. Rex enters the stage and he said, “Okay robots. Here is the script that Space Lord has written himself. Follow it to the letter.” Justin, Larry, and George look over the scripts.

The stage is dark and Justin is dressed as a clown and he runs around the stage. He draws out a katana and ninjas appear all over the stage. Justin fights off the ninjas. A ninja ship appears and it has a giant flag outside and Justin jumps to the flag and he uses the katana sword to cut it up. Larry leaves the ship and he is morphed into an anime character. He sees Justin and they begin dueling. George Ferrier is sitting on the side holding a rice ball. A clown jumps in front of George and rips the rice ball out of his hands and replaces it with a sub. More costumed freaks enter the stage and it becomes a big anime battle. Space Lord claps and he said, “This is awesome. This is the best anime battle in the galaxy.” Then people with flags that read, “4Idiots” enter the stage and they replace the props so they look more American. They change the costumes on some of the characters and they replace Japanese text on the stage with American English text. Justin and Larry get smashed into the walls and most of the stage erupts in flames and they bow down.

Space Lord is having the time of his life watching the play. Space Lord said, “This truly is the greatest play ever written. It is better than that other great play my teacher said was good.” Justice Knight is in Rex's office. Rex enters his office. Justice Knight said, “I gave you your part of our deal and it is time you gave me mine.” Rex said, “I guess.” Justice Knight said, “You wrote here that you would help me with your cause if I gave you men for the greatest play in the galaxy that was written by Space Lord.” Rex said, “Look pal, I don't have any friends. My only friend is Space Lord and I don't get to see him very much since he is busy terrorizing people in the galaxy that go against him. He goes against people like you. Come to think of it, I think you are against him. I cannot let this go. I am calling...” Justice Knight draws out his sword and he holds it up to Rex. Justice Knight said, “You have been brainwashed. There is nothing good about Space Lord. He just wants to make you think he is good so you would be his slave.” Rex kicks Justice Knight in the face and Justice Knight flips backwards. Justice Knight gets back on his feet and he aims his sword at Rex. Rex is about to press a button on the wall and Justice Knight throws his sword into the wires coming off the button and the button is deactivated. Justice Knight's sword zips back into his hands.

Rex calls in his clowns and Justice Knight fights them off. Rex runs out of the room. Rex runs to the stage. Rex sees George Ferrier sitting on the sidelines. Rex grabs onto George's hand and he said, “You're coming with me!” George said, “I don't think so.” George takes out his ray gun and he aims it at Rex. Rex said, “How did you know?” George said, “Ancient Chinese secret.” Rex throws George into the ground. Justin and Larry see what is happening. Justin and Larry zip to George. Justin said, “Rex, you were supposed to help us.” Rex said, “I lied. I really only serve, Space Lord.” Rex points to Space Lord. Space Lord said, “Thank you, my friend Rex.” Justin and Larry freak out. Space Lord punches his hand into the circus and he grabs onto Justin, Larry, and George. Space Lord said, “The three of you are going to be my slaves forever.” Larry said, “George might be because he is a human and he can fall victim to your brainwashing. I cannot though because I am abiotic.” Space Lord said, “That means nothing. I can brainwash robots too.” Space Lord snaps his fingers. A bomb that is shiny and rainbow colored enters the scene. Space Lord said, “Beautiful Bomb, take these prisoners to my prison ship.” Beautiful Bomb said, “Yes sir.” Beautiful Bomb takes Justin, Larry, and George down a narrow red and black bridge through space.

Larry said, “So you're a walking bomb?” Beautiful Bomb said, “Pretty much.” Larry said, “How short is your fuse?” Beautiful Bomb said, “What do you mean?” Larry said, “Well, you are a bomb. I think that means you literally explode if you get angry.” Beautiful Bomb said, “That's just some myth they teach you in school.” Larry said, “Really? I think you have the ugliest face in the universe. If you were to join an ugly competition, they would say, 'Sorry, no professionals.'” Beautiful Bomb said, “You are risking your life.” George said, “He does have a point though. You look like a walking ball with a fuse on it. Who built you, Felix the Cat?” George slaps his knee. Beautiful Bomb said, “You're asking for it.” Justin said, “How many girlfriends have you had?" Beautiful Bomb said, "I had one girlfriend once." Justin said, "Oh really? Was she real or was she just made out of cereal boxes." Justin, Larry and George laugh and Beautiful Bomb. Beautiful Bomb's fuse is lit and he explodes and Justin and Larry form a shield around George Ferrier. Particles of Beautiful Bomb are scattered around space.

Justice Knight is still in the circus stadium and he is dueling Space Lord. Space Lord punches the bleachers that Justice Knight is standing in and Justice Knight jumps out of the way. Space Lord tries to poke Justice Knight and Justice Knight blocks the pokes with his sword. Justice Knight jumps onto Space Lord's hand and Justice Knight runs up Space Lord's arm and he slashes Space Lord's face with his sword. Space Lord grabs onto Justice Knight and he shakes Justice Knight. Justice Knight uses the black flaps on his armor and he jets out of Space Lord's grasp. Justice Knight kicks Space Lord in the face and he zips off. Justice Knight looks through his mask and he sees infrared signatures of his friends moving through space. Justice Knight whistles and his ship arrives and Justice Knight falls into his ship and he zips over to where his friends are and he zips out of the scene.

Chapter 5

Justin, Larry, and George look dazed. George said, "I have never been flailed through space before. I am kind of used to it on my planet back in the late 20th and early 21st century." Justice Knight said, "Our plan has failed. Space Lord may be onto us. It is not safe for us to return to Eden Vern. We may have to live in this ship for the time being." Justin said, "Why does it say, 'Low Fuel' on that light over there?" Justice Knight goes to the front controls of the ship and he sees that they are low on fuel. Justice Knight said, "We are low on fuel." The sign changes so it now says, "Out of fuel." Justice Knight said, "Now we are out of fuel." Justin said, "What does that mean for us?" Justice Knight said, "Have you ever been on a crashing space ship before?" Justin said, "I may have." George said, "I've reported on them before." Justice Knight said, "You are going to be crashing right now." They get to their seats and they buckle in. They crash land on a barren desert planet.

The team gets out and they look at the ship. George said, "Where are we?" Justice Knight looks at a portable computer built into the side of his arm. Justice Knight said, "My computer says we are somewhere in the Orion cluster. It is unknown exactly where we are since there are no satellites anywhere near here." Justin said, "Does that mean that this place is uninhabited?" Justice Knight said, "Not necessarily. There could still be some life out here. They just prefer to be left alone and not get involved with our conflicts. I suggest that we respect their wishes. We may have to stay somewhere but we will not bring any attention here. Do not try to signal for help. If Space Lord finds out we are here, he is going to do something like send the Platinum Skater here after us." The heroes trek through the desert. They come across a camp. They see people dressed in funny dresses see them. They surround the heroes. The leader of the camp said, “Who may you be?” Justice Knight said, “I am Justice Knight and we come in peace. We have crashed landed here and we need to find a way to get off this planet.” The camp leader said, “You've come to the right place. Take your seats over there.” They take their seats.

They sit around a camp fire with the campers. The leader said, “There was this one time a robot asked me for directions to the most luxurious hotel in the galaxy. I told him it is in Arcturus and he walked into it.” All the campers except for the heroes laugh. Another member stands up and he said, “There was that other time a robot asked if he could use my phone, I gave him a plastic toy phone from a MacDoogal's Hippy Meal.” The campers laugh except for the heroes. Justin said, “You seem to have a thing against robots.” The camp leader said, “We all do. That is the purpose of our people. We find robots and we make them live in pain and suffering or we just downright destroy them. We then make soup out of them. Want some robot soup?” The camp leader offers them robot soup. Justin flinches and has a disgusted look on his face. Larry said, “We are robots and if you have anything wrong with that, you could tell it to my feet and my...” The leader said, “Attack!” The camp members take out weapons and they go after Larry. Larry fights a few of them off. Larry said, “Why are you all going after me? Justin over there is a robot too and I don't know about that knight too.” Justin said, “Why did you have to do that, Larry?” Larry said, “I just felt like seeing these people get angry.” They begin to fight the heroes. George takes out his ray gun and he shoots it into the fire and it creates a large dust cloud and it makes it hard to see anything. Justice Knight's sword is visible and he slashes down the camp members.

The camp leader puts on special vision goggles and he sees the heroes. He uses a special gun and it fires a rope around the heroes and he ties them up. The camp leader said, “You guys are toast now.” George said, “I am not a robot.” The camp leader said, “You didn't think I didn't know that? You cannot blame a robot for being a robot no more than you can blame a dog for being a dog. For you being with these robot pigs, that makes you worse than a robot.” George said, “What about, Space Lord?” The camp people stop and the leader said, “Space Lord? He is our god. He is the reason we can be entertained by 4Idiots and their awesome dubs of all the world's greatest animes that are not ruined by their original Japanese versions.” Justin said, “I think they've been brainwashed too.” A boomerang comes in and it cuts the ropes and the heroes are free. The person that threw the boomerang is a tall woman that looks like she is from an old silent cartoon. She fights off the campers and she gathers up the heroes and leads them into a carriage that is being pulled by robotic horses.

Justin is in the front next to the woman. Justin said, “Thanks for saving us back there.” The woman said, “It was no problem. I deal with those jerks all the time. They keep wanting my cat for other things and I tell them that my cat belongs only to me?” Larry said, “What's so great about a cat?” The woman said, “You have never met my cat before.” They zip off into the horizon.

Chapter 6

They arrive on a ranch and they see human-like animals playing around. Justin said, “What is this place and who are you?” The woman said, “I am Claude Voorman. I have been working with animals for decades. I have perfected many of them to live the great lifestyles that we have. They have achieved many great things because of me. That pig over there wrote a best selling novel last year.” Voorman takes out a copy of the book and she hands it to Justin. Voorman said, “You still have not yet met my first and favorite achievement.”

Voorman brings the heroes inside into her home. She said, “Felix, I am home.” An anthropomorphic cat that wears a polo shirt and wears white gloves and orange shoes enters the scene. Voorman said, “This is Felix. He is my special cat. He is the first of my creations. I believe he will do well in the universe. Why don't we sit down and have tea and biscuits?”

They sit at the table and eat biscuits and drink tea. Voorman said, “Felix holds the secrets to the entire universe. He contains the key to end the Space Lord. The Space Lord has devastated the people of this place and they have left this place in shambles.” Larry said, “Is that why the place is mostly poor and barren and has lame technology?” Voorman said, “I guess so.” Felix said, “I've been wanting to discover my destiny for years now.” Voorman said, “I cannot let you leave this place. You are too special to me. Do you know what will happen if Space Lord gets a hold of you?” Felix said, “Space Lord has devastated most of the galaxy and soon most of the universe. We are not doing anything by not letting me go anywhere.” Justice Knight said, “He has a point. I have devoted my life to the justice and security of other people. I will defend Felix with all my might.” Felix said, “Does this mean that I get to go with you?” Voorman said, “Of course not. You are one of the few creations of mine that has not yet left the nest. I want to keep you for as long as I can.” Felix said, “Mom, I cannot stay here forever. I need to get out. Let me go with these guys.” Voorman said, “Felix.” Justice Knight said, “I would like to take you with us but we don't have a working space craft right now. We ran out of fuel and we need more power to get us off of this place.” Felix said, “I am smart. Maybe I can help you.” Justice Knight said, “I like your optimism but we need to be realistic here. We are going against a magical god that rules most of the universe like how a knife cuts through butter.” Felix said, “But I...” The house explodes and rubble and debris fill the scene. The Platinum Skater zooms in and he said, “You didn't think you could get away from me, could you?” The Platinum Skater fires plasma shots from his skateboard and destroys more of the house. The Platinum Skater looks at the camp members standing outside of the house. The Platinum Skater said, “Thank you for leading me here.” The camp leader said, “No problem.”

Felix tries to free his mother that is stuck under some rubble. Voorman said, “I have some scripts hiding under the place. You need to get them and give them to the rebels.” Felix runs down the stairs to the basement. He dodges falling debris and he grabs the closed crystal box with a lock on it. Felix takes it back up the stairs. The team is fighting off the Space Lord's men. George Ferrier is in the middle of the action and he takes out his ray gun. He fires a stun beam and it hits and knocks out one of Space Lord's men. George sees there are controls on the gun. He sees there is a hand mode and he switches it to be a hand. George pulls the trigger and a plasma hand comes out and George uses it to hit off Space Lord's men. George dodges a shot and he hits down some bad guys. The Platinum Skater grabs George Ferrier. George Ferrier uses the plasma hand to slap Platinum Skater across the face. Platinum Skater loses his grip on George Ferrier and George Ferrier falls to the ground. The Platinum Skater grabs onto George before he falls to the ground. George kicks the Platinum Skater in the face. Platinum Skater keeps fighting with George. George knocks the Platinum Skater off his skateboard. George zips through the odd sky with the platinum skateboard. George raises the ray gun and he said, “I'm glad that DDD News roadblock is over. This is what I truly am.” George mentally connects with the board and he fires a giant plasma shot out of the skateboard. George hovers over the ground and fires plasma shots at the Space Lord's men. George said, “I used to hate these things back in my day. I love them now.”

Justin and Larry fight off some of Space Lord's men. Justin and Larry are outnumbered. George zooms in and he grabs Justin and Larry and brings them to the sky. Justin is in one of George's arms and Larry is in the other. Justin said, “We need to find Felix. He is somehow the key to all of this.” George said, “Now where is, Felix?” George scans the ground. Justin said, “Don't even try. Leave it to the experts.” Justin and Larry use their special scanning vision and they see Felix is still at the remains of his burned down house. Justice Knight is standing outside deflecting shots from the enemies. Felix sees his mother is all beat up. She is crushed by a lot of debris. She said, “Felix, make me proud...” Her eyes close and she slowly dies. Felix's eyes go big in horror and they turn red and watery. Felix looks at the crystal box in his hands and George comes by and grabs Felix and Justice Knight.

George looks at everyone on the skateboard. George said, “I think we have everyone.” Justice Knight takes out a hand-held computer and he holds it up to the skateboard. Justice Knight said, “This cosmic skateboard is emitting a large sum of energy. We can convert this into fuel for our ship. This could power our ship for all eternity.” Justin said, “What about the Platinum Skater?” Justice Knight said, “We will leave him be. He has a big lesson to learn.” The heroes fly off.

Chapter 7

Space Lord is in his throne room and he sees the heroes got away with the Platinum Skater's skateboard. Space Lord said, “How could a band of petty heroes take down my greatest player? How could a news reporter fight my greatest fighter like that and take his board and use it against him?” A butler enters the throne. The butler said, “Space Lord, Platinum Skater is here with results.” Platinum Skater enters the throne and he looks all beat up. Space Lord said, “How could this happen to you? You are supposed to have all the power of the cosmos at your hands.” Platinum Skater said, “I wasn't expecting some 150 some odd year-old news reporter to beat me up like that.” Space Lord said, “George Ferrier is a bigger threat to me than I thought. They are all threats. We must rip apart Justin and Larry and we must make Justice Knight and George Ferrier my slaves.” Platinum Skater said, “Felix the cat also got away.” Space Lord said, “Felix?” Platinum Skater said, “He is a genetically modified cat that was made by Dr. Voorman.” Space Lord gets a flashback of Dr. Voorman showing him plans for Felix and that he is capable of containing a brick that is purple and green. Space Lord said, “That was Felix?” Platinum Skater said, “Dr. Voorman is dead now." Space Lord said, "You fool. You should have let her live so I could question her about Felix."

Space Lord is filmed in his throne and it is broadcast all over the parts of the universe he owns and controls. People are slaving over work all based on Space Lord. They stop and they look at screens with Space Lord on them. Space Lord said, "My fellow slaves, I mean, people. We have lost another battle in the outer valence end of the galaxy. A team of people lead by a Knight called Justice Knight" (Justice Knight is shown on the screen) "have defeated our forces in a battle and they have beaten up the Platinum Skater." The Platinum Skater walks on the screen and everyone that is a slave to Space Lord sees the beat up Platinum Skater. Space Lord said, "Space Lord was beat up by the news reporter, George Ferrier. If you could find any of these people, I will take you off slave control for a month. Happy hunting." Various people from the universe that have been brainwashed by Space Lord travel around to various parts of the galaxy looking for, Justin, Larry, George, and Justice Knight.

Justin, Larry, George, and Justice Knight are back on planet, Eden Vern. Justice Knight takes the stand on the stage. Justice Knight said, "We have won a battle against Space Lord. We have the Platinum Skater's board." Justice Knight shows everyone the Platinum Skater's board. Justice Knight said, "We now have a powerful new recruit, Felix the cat." Everyone claps for Felix. Justice Knight said, "Felix gave us this box that is locked which was given to him by his owner. I bet this is something that could help us with our cause. We will find out." Justice Knight takes out his sword and he tries to cut the lock off. It creates a lot of sparks and it does no damage to the lock or the box. Justice Knight said, "This is odd. It looks like it needs a special key to open it." The Platinum Skater is in the group of people and he said, "Of course you need a special key to open it. Only Space Lord has that." Everyone stares at the Platinum Skater. The Platinum Skater said, "Don't fear me. I am useless without my board." Platinum Skater spies his board in Justice Knight's fist. Platinum Skater jumps to Justice Knight and he grabs onto Justice Knight's board. Justice Knight fights back and he rips the board back into his grasp. Justice Knight throws his sword at the Platinum Skater and he gets stuck under the blade and he cannot get up. Platinum Skater tries to pick up the sword. It does not budge at all. Justice Knight said, "Only he who is worthy can lift up my sword." Platinum Skater uses all his power to lift the sword and he is still stuck. Platinum Skater said, "I may be stuck here but I know you won't be for long." Space Lord's men smash through the glass and they pin all the rebels to the ground. They aim their weapons at Justice Knight. Justice Knight jumps into the Space Lord soldiers and he fights a few of them off with his bare hands. One of them takes out a taser and tases Justice Knight. His armor blocks the taser and he smacks that guy in the face. More and more soldiers pile on top of him. Justice Knight is handcuffed.

The rebels are brought into the green lush forest where they are chained to the trees. Larry said, "I guess this is where it all ends." Justin said, "I wouldn't be so sure of that. We've been through things like this before. Remember when Dr. Membres nearly destroyed me and..." Larry said, "I remember when I got you out of that." Justin said, "I remember that part now. Can you morph out of this?" Larry said, "I think I can." Larry turns himself into a gel and he morphs out of the chains. The guards do not notice Larry. Larry morphs into a mouse and he rapidly moves across the ground and he almost gets stepped on by a guard. Larry climbs up a tree. He uses his telescope vision and he sees a city out in the far distance. Larry morphs into an eagle and he heads for the city.

The platoon commander for Space Lord takes out a large script. He said, “I bring you this letter has it was written by Space Lord himself. It reads, 'To all those that dare to defy my command I have placed on you, you shall rot away while tied to a tree out in the lush forest of Eden Vern. There is nothing great for your futures. All you can do as you rot away or have your batteries run out is to watch some good anime which was brought to all of us by 4idiots entertainment.'” Guards roll out TVs that show animes on them that were horribly censored by 4Idiots entertainment. George said, “At least he gives us some entertainment to watch before we die. At least it is not a boring speech or a lame chick flick or sports.” Justin rolls his eyes.

A large group of aboriginals from the planet, Eden Vern arrive at the scene where Space Lord's tanks and battle mechs surround the temples the rebels were staying in. The leader holds out a scepter and he said, “ATTACK!” The people from Eden Vern gang up and they flip over a tank. Space Lord's goons try to fight off the people from Eden Vern but the Eden Vern people fight off Space Lord's men easy. A group of the Eden Vern people head into the woods where the heroes are tied up. The Eden Vern people untie the rebels. The leader unties Justin, George, and Felix. Justin said, “Thanks, leader of some sort.” The leader said, “Disguise has fooled you.” He morphs back into Larry. Justin said, “You morphed into one of them and you got them to help us. This is awesome. I never would have guessed your shape shifting powers would come in handy like that.” Larry said, “It is part of why Dr. Livingston built me.” An Eden Vern aboriginal hands ray guns to Justin, George, and Felix. Felix looks at it. Felix said, “I never used a ray gun like this before.” Justin said, “You're gonna have to learn.” George said, “It is quite a lot of fun.”

Justice Knight is tied up in chains in the main temple and Space Lord's men gather around him. They see that the Platinum Skater is still stuck under Justice Knight's sword. The Space Lord commander said, “Look Justice Knight. Don't be such a jerk. We know you have the power to free the Platinum Skater at your own will but you are choosing not to.” Justice Knight said, “Platinum Skater is the exact contradiction to my very philosophy. I stand for justice while Platinum Skater stands for injustice. As long as he stands on the side of injustice, I will not save him.” The Space Lord commander said, “That is what I was expecting from you. I came up with a plan.” Cameras roll in and they are broadcasting Justice Knight all over the cosmos. People on various planets are going about their day and they stop and they see the screens and they see Justice Knight tied up in chains. The Space Lord commander said, “Justice Knight is on Space Lord's most wanted list. We are now going to reveal to you, the one thing he never wanted anyone to see. What lies beneath that helmet he wears will be exposed.” Justice Knight starts panicking. Justice Knight said, “No one is to ever know what I look like underneath this helmet.” Space Lord commander said, “They will all know soon enough.” The Space Lord commander grabs onto the helmet and he is about to pull it off and then there is an explosion in the base and it sends the commander flying to the other end of the room and Justice Knight's identity is still in tact.

Justin, Larry, George, Felix and the rest of the rebel people jump in the room. They exchange volleys of weapon fire. The commander gets up and he sees Felix is there. The commander said, “Could that really be him?” The commander goes up to Felix and Felix uses the plasma hand on the gun to slap the commander in the face. George Ferrier gives the commander another slap in the face with the plasma hand. Justin breaks the chains holding Justice Knight in place. Justice Knight said, “The Platinum Skater still refuses to take our side. I guess I have no choice.” Justice Knight picks up his sword and he grabs onto the body of Platinum Skater with the other arm and he fights off the Space Lord soldiers in the place. Justice Knight said, “We need to get out of here. Evacuate the planet at once.” The team heads for their ship with Platinum Skater and they fly off.

Chapter 8

The team is in space and they are with an armada of triangle fighters and they dogfight with Space Lord's star force. Justice Knight controls the ship and he engages in the battle in space. Justin, Larry, George, and Felix are in the back looking over the Platinum Skater. Justin said, “What would it take to get you to take our side in this war?” Platinum Skater said, “If you give me something better than what Space Lord is willing to give me. Come to think of it, I have not collected any pay from him and I have been serving him for years now.” Justin said, “Has it not crossed your mind yet? The Space Lord is using you. He does not care about you. He does not care about anyone other than himself. He is worse than Dr. Membres.” George said, “I have a lot of money which is probably saved up in my bank account in the bank back on earth. I am probably a millionaire with all the money I earned from interest and all those other things we invested in.” Justin said, “Earth is kind of far away to go to right now.” The ship shakes as it gets shot by an enemy fighter.

More enemy fighters come in and they fire homing missiles at the ship the heroes are in. The ship is critically damaged. Red lights flash in the ship. Justice Knight said, “Our ship is on its last legs. It won't be long before it is completely destroyed.” Justin said, “Platinum Skater, you are all powerful with your skateboard.” Platinum Skater said, “That is correct.” Justin said, “Do we have the internet in here?” Larry is on a computer on the ship and he accesses the internet on it. Larry said, “We still have internet.” Justin said, “Good.” Justin, George, and Platinum Skater go to the computer and they go to the bank website. George looks at his bank balance and his eyes go big. George said, “If I went back to earth in my time, I would be one of the richest men on the planet.” Justin said, “Well, now you are just an average man in a universe filled with planets that have people with a lot more money than you.” Platinum Skater said, “I am powerless without my skateboard. Any money is better than no money. I guess it is a deal then.” George Ferrier transfers the money from his account into Platinum Skater's bank account. The ship is about to be destroyed and Platinum Skater gets to his skateboard and he grabs everyone in the ship and he darts out of it.

Platinum Skater crashes into a green and purple crystal planet and he drops everyone. Justin said, “Where are we now?” Felix said, “This looks like another mess they got us into.” Platinum Skater said, “Aren't you Felix the cat?” Felix said, “What's it to ya?” Platinum Skater said, “My master is obsessed with you. You hold the secret to his entire existence.” Felix said, “I do?” Platinum Skater said, “Don't you have some kind of crystal box in you that is the source of Space Lord's power?” Felix said, “I don't know what you are talking about.” Platinum Skater said, “Maybe you are not that Felix the cat then.” Justin said, “We don't have a ship this time but we do have the Platinum Skater's skateboard we could dash on.” Platinum Skater said, “I could just dash off this planet right now and abandon you all here.” Justin said, “You wouldn't do that. You can't after what George just gave you.” Platinum Skater said, “I collected my money and that is all that matters to me. I don't care if Space Lord continues to run the universe for the rest of eternity. I am leaving.” Platinum Skater jumps on his skateboard and just as he zips off, Justice Knight clangs onto it.

Platinum Skater zips through space and Justice Knight is holding onto the Skateboard. Justice Knight said, “You must consider helping all of us. Everyone needs to have friends. You need friends. We will gladly be your friends.” Platinum Skater said, “I don't need friends. Space Lord always told me to be better than everyone else.” Justice Knight said, “The Space Lord is wrong. He is wrong about everything. We can serve you. We will teach you how to be a good friend. You are powerful enough to take on the Space Lord. If you beat him, you will be forever remembered as a hero throughout the universe.” Space Lord stops and he said, “You really think so?” Justice Knight said, “I am sure of myself. I know you have good in you. I can see within you. I know you had a hard time as a kid with no real friends and you had those people your rich parents paid to play with you. Space Lord showed you a new way in life but life does not run like how the Space Lord showed you. There is a lot more. Ruling the universe is not the life's goal like what Space Lord may have shown you. Space Lord made you go after people that went against him. Did it ever occur to you that maybe those people were right and you were wrong?” Platinum Skater gets flashbacks of him punishing people that did petty things against Space Lord and Platinum Skater does not get anything back. Platinum Skater gets some flashbacks of him having nothing but then he gets a skateboard and he treks across the cosmos and becomes powerful and rules over beings. Justice Knight said, “You need to think for yourself. Consider what is right for you and others. You need to take my word. We can still win this. Bring us back to that crystal planet and we can get our friends off it and go and beat this Space Lord once and for all. Platinum Skater said, “You know what, I think you're right. I was self centered and I was a jerk. I shall now correct my mistakes.” Justice Knight said, “Now that is what I want to see.”

They head back for the crystal planet and Space Lord's forces are surrounding the place. Justin, Larry, George, and Felix are in a bubble that is orbiting around Space Lord. Space Lord said, “Felix the cat. I finally have you.” Space Lord isolates Felix from the rest of the team and he places Felix down on a medical bed. Space Lord gets his robots to crowd around Felix and they take a crystal box from Felix. Space Lord clutches the box and he said, “I finally have it. This thing gave me my powers all those years back and I finally have it again. Space Lord rubs the crystal box all over him and he grows larger and stronger. Space Lord said, “Everyone that stands a toe out of line is doomed by me.”

Platinum Skater said, “Not on my watch.” Space Lord said, “Platinum Skater, you are here just in time to witness all the fun.” Platinum Skater said, “There will be no fun.” Platinum Skater fires plasma blasts out of his skateboard and he hits Space Lord with them. Space Lord reaches out and he keeps missing the Platinum Skater. Platinum Skater fires a shot at Space Lord's head. Space lord losses focus and the bubble is left unattended. Justice Knight jumps and he cuts the bubble open freeing, Justin, Larry, and George. They fall back down to the planet. Platinum Skater continues to zip around the Space Lord and the Space Lord finally grabs the Platinum Skater and Platinum Skater is in Space Lord's grasp and the skateboard falls down into the dark abyss of space. Space Lord sucks all the energy out of Platinum Skater. Platinum Skater turns to brass and he is thrown into the crystal planet where he cracks the planet. The planet begins to break. George fires some shots at Space Lord and Space Lord said, “You didn't really think that would work on me, did you?” Space Lord uses his powers and he rubs George against the surface of the planet and he is trapped in a bubble. Larry jumps and grabs onto the bubble and Larry tries morphing into something that could be used to break the bubble. Larry gets stuck in a bubble. Justice Knight holds out his sword and he runs to Space Lord. Justice Knight deflects Space Lord's attacks with his sword and Justice Knight jumps and he slashes Space Lord with his sword. Space Lord flinches back and he grabs onto Justice Knight and Justice Knight drops his sword and it falls into the black abyss of space. Space Lord beats the crap out of Justice Knight and he encases Justice Knight in a bubble. Justin is all that is left now and everyone watching on the sidelines is looking at Justin. Justin rolls over and he dodges magic attacks. The Justin steps on a crack in the planet and the crack gets larger. Justin jumps to dodge a magic shot from Space Lord and Justin lands back on the crack and the planet cracks in half and it breaks apart into shards of crystal and Justin falls into the black abyss of space.

Chapter 9

Justin keeps falling into the abyss. Justin is in complete darkness. Justin keeps falling. Justin checks his clock on his computer on his left wrist. Justin sees that it has been several minutes and he is still falling. Justin said, “I guess this is how it all ends. I am just going to keep...” Justin smashes into a black solid surface. He sees 3D shapes zip by and the floor lights up showing a red and blue grid. Justin said, “Where am I?” A voice from earlier said, “You are in my world. The world that exists beneath space and everything else.” Justin turns around and he sees Mystika. Justin said, “I remember you. You were that guy that was trying to tell me something at that space outpost as it was being destroyed. You survived.” Mystika said, “My name is Mystika and I survive everything.” Justin said, “That is a lot to survive. Something tells me you know something about Space Lord and his entire plan.” Mystika said, “Indeed I do. If you have a seat, I will tell you the story of, Space Lord.”

Mystika said, (What he says is shown as he says it) “I met Space Lord when he was a boy back on earth in 2003. His real name is Tommy Fakeborn. He had a big idea to promote to the world that 4Idiots entertainment was the greatest thing since sliced bread. Most people thought it sucked and they bullied him because of it. He still stood up for his beliefs even though no one else liked them. I realized he had a great sense of courage so I found him and I brought him into the future where I would train him and teach him to become a more powerful man. I taught him about society in space and economics of space. He was disgusted with what I taught him. He broke free from me one day and he ran into a lab that was running experiments on a crystal box that gives living beings more power than they originally had. It was originally used on animals to make them more like people, anthropomorphic people that is. Tommy got this crystal box and he used it to turn himself into a god. He then became the Space Lord and he used his persuasive powers to turn people to his side. He started ruling over insignificant parts of the galaxy. He began expanding into more significant parts and he began an empire for himself. Insurrections began to form and fight against him. A group of insurrectionists won a battle against him and they took back a large section of the galaxy and they got back control of the crystal box so Space Lord could no longer use it to give him any more power. He was losing more and more battles and he realized he could not rely on his strength anymore. He then found the Platinum Skater and he paid the Platinum Skater to do his evil deeds. Space Lord was lying since he never paid anything to the Platinum Skater. People thought the galaxy was doomed up until Justice Knight arrived and brought people from all over the cosmos to fight against Space Lord. I guess that brings us right up to now."

Justin said, "I need to do something about Space Lord. I need to take a stand against him. I defeated Dr. Membres on several occasions and I saved the lives of countless people and I made robots more mainstream and they improved the lives of people." Mystika said, "Space Lord is far more powerful than Dr. Membres or any of those other villains you fought against over the years." Justin said, "It is obvious that I cannot beat Space Lord alone. I need some help but it looks like most of my friends have been captured." Mystika said, "Check this land for yourself. You may find some things down here that could help you. Some objects of significance and possibly a new friend." Justin said, "I will keep that in mind."

Justin explores the strange land. Justin walks past flying shapes and he sees the Platinum Skater's skateboard. Justin grabs it and he starts riding on it. He hovers above the land and he looks for more things. Justin sees some familiar colored particles spinning around in a cyclone. Justin collects all the particles and they reassemble into Beautiful Bomb. Justin said, "Beautiful Bomb?" Beautiful Bomb said, "It is me alright. Can you believe that Space Lord? I work for him for eight months and I finally get a job from him and he abandons me like that. He treats me like I'm dead." Justin said, "I don't think you're dead. I think you can be my friend. I wish I could give you something for what I did earlier." Justin reaches in his back storage compartment and he takes out a paperclip and a few dollars and some Cheese Rat tokens. Justin shows them to Beautiful Bomb. Beautiful Bomb looks over it and he said, "Eh, it is better than nothing." Justin said, "Will you be my friend and help me take out Space Lord?" Beautiful Bomb said, "Sure, why not. I have nothing better to do but to mope." Justin said, "Maybe you can help me find something down here. I think there is another thing here and..." Justin and Beautiful Bomb stop and they see Justice Knight's sword is stuck in stone.

Beautiful Bomb and Justin run for the sword. Beautiful Bomb said, "I saw this somewhere. Only the hero gets to pull the sword out of the stone but there is a trick to it." Beautiful Bomb tries wiggling the sword and it does not budge at all. Justin said, "There is no point in trying. Only he that is worthy can lift the sword." Beautiful Bomb said, "That's what they always say. Only some selfless guy that wastes his life with other people's problems can lift it up." Justin gets flashbacks of him saving people's lives and defeating Dr. Membres and other villains over the years. Justin said, "What if..." Justin goes to the sword and he grabs onto the handle and he lifts it high in the air. Beautiful Bomb's eyes go big. Justin waves the sword around and he does some moves with it. Justin said, "I am actually worthy of using Justice Knight's sword." Beautiful Bomb said, "If only you were worthy of actually getting us out of here." Mystika enters the scene. Mystika claps his hands. Mystika said, "Bravo. More than bravo. You truly are a great hero. There have been thousands of other heroes over the years that have never been worthy of lifting up that sword. You did it. That means you have a greater purpose in life. I say you should go over there and give Space Lord what he has going for him." Justin said, "I will thank you great master. Jump on, Beautiful Bomb." Beautiful Bomb jumps on Justin's back and Justin takes off on the platinum skateboard and goes back to where Space Lord is.

Chapter 10

Justin zips to Space Lord and Space Lord said, “Ah, Justin. You have come back. Was that beating I gave you and your friends earlier not enough?” Justin stands on the skateboard and he holds Justice Knight's sword up to Space Lord. Justin said, “Face it. I am more powerful than you. You should stand down and surrender.” Space Lord said, “I will do that, when all the stars in the universe freeze.” Space Lord swirls his arms around and the people from the circus and other people under command of Space Lord appear and they attack Justin. Justin zips around them and he fires energy from his board at some of them and he sends those ones out into space. Justin slashes one of them with his sword. A strong man comes and he smacks Justin in the face. Justin slashes the man with his sword and he fires energy at him and Justin takes out a bicycle pump and he connects it to the strong man and he fills the strong man up with air and the strong man gets sent into the cosmos like a balloon. Justin turns to Space Lord and he said, “Give up now. I am stronger than all your minions.” Space Lord rapidly stretches his arm out and Justin zips around it. Space Lord tries to grab hold of Justin and Justin fires energy at the Space Lord and the Space Lord blocks it with his arms.

Space Lord reaches and grabs Justin. Justin slashes Space Lord's arm away with the sword. Space Lord grabs onto the sword itself and Justin still holds onto it. Space Lord uses his other hand to pick up Justin and he carries Justin over to him and Justin loses the skateboard. Space Lord said, “You are doomed.” Justin breaks free of the Space Lord's grasp and Justin takes the sword into the Space Lord and he cuts the Space Lord downwards. The Space Lord's insides are revealed and it looks like a flowing conduit of cosmic and mystic energy. Justin keeps falling and he gets the sword stuck into Space Lord. Justin tries to get the sword back but it is stuck in the cosmic and mystic energy very well. Space Lord knocks Justin back and he is sent flying into a cloud of debris from destroyed planets and Justin grabs hold onto a piece of the debris. Space Lord looks as evil and deranged as could be. Justin sees that he is without the sword and without the skateboard. Justin looks into the bubble and he sees his friends are in there. People from all over the cosmos stand on the sidelines and they see the damage Justin has done to Space Lord. They look brainwashed but then they change so they seem like they are not. They raise their arms in the air and they start cheering, “Justin! Justin! Justin! Justin...” Justin said, “They are routing for me. They want me to win.” Justin gives the Space Lord a stern look. Justin said, “You are going to get your dessert now.” Justin jumps off the debris and he soars for Space Lord. Justin grabs hold of the cosmic and mystic head of Space Lord. Justin opens up his back compartment and he takes out Beautiful Bomb. Justin said, “It is time you are put to a use.” Justin ignites the Beautiful Bomb and he throws the Beautiful Bomb into the Space Lord. Beautiful Bomb said, “Work, work, work, why do I always get the explosive work?” Beautiful Bomb gets to the core of Space Lord and he detonates and he is destroyed and Space Lord begins to self-destruct.

Space Lord explodes and the crystal box and a key are set loose and Justin manages to grab hold of them. The bubble that Justin's friends are in is popped and they are set free. A cartridge is released from the remains of Space Lord. Justin grabs a hold of it. Justin and his friends are brought back to the surface of space where Mystika is. Mystika said, “Justin, I knew you could do it. I knew the next chapter of the history of the universe would be about you.” Justin said, “I figured I would get at least a few chapters in there.” Mystika goes to the cartridge and he opens it up and Justin and friends are watching. Tommy Fakeborn rolls out of the cartridge. Tommy said, “You, you do not understand what 4Idiots entertainment means to the universe. It is the greatest thing since sliced bread.” Mystika said, “I guess I was wrong. You really are a hopeless case, Tommy. I guess I have to send you back.” Mystika looks at Justin and his friends. Mystika said, “You will come with me to make sure he is safely returned to his time and place and that he is brought to the attention of the proper authorities. It is illegal to travel into the future or any other time in history and cause drastic changes or events.” Justin said, “We are going...” Mystika said, “You and your friends will come with me to San Francisco in the year 2003 where we will bring Tommy in.” Justin said, “I've never been to San Francisco in the year 2003 before.” Mystika said, “You will love it. They have so much great entertainment and music there and games and... you will never get bored.”

Justin looks at his friends and he said, “I guess we will be heading there.” Larry said, “I read all about 2003. I think my dreams are finally going to come true.” George said, “I was still a news reporter for DDD News back in 2003. This is going to be a real blast from the past.” Justice Knight finds his sword and he places it on his back. Justice Knight said, “I don't remember the last time I went to 2003. I travel to so many different time periods that it is hard for me to remember which one was which.” Felix looks at the crystal box. Mystika walks to Felix and Mystika said, “That box contains the secrets to your existence. You will learn what you truly are once you enter the realm in there.” Felix said, “There's a realm in here?” Mystika said, “There is and it is your destiny to go in there and find out for yourself.” Felix looks at his friends and he said, “Sorry friends. I guess I have no choice but to learn the truth.” Justin said, “I guess that is more important to you. Here is the key to the box.” Justin hands the key from Space Lord to Felix. Larry said, “Don't forget to write.” Larry morphs into a pen with paper. Felix walks away with the crystal box. Colored particles rain from the sky. They form back together and they form into Beautiful Bomb. Beautiful Bomb said, “Did we win?” Justin said, “We did alright.” Beautiful Bomb said, “That's good.” Platinum Skater grabs his skateboard and he said, “Want to come to 2003 with us?” Beautiful Bomb said, “I guess I could. I don't know what else I would do.” Mystika holds onto Tommy and Mystika casts a spell and he opens up a portal. The team walks into it.

Chapter 11

The team appears on the streets of San Francisco in 2003. Larry said, “So this is what 2003 is like.” Mystika said, “You will have all the time to enjoy it once we take Tommy in.” They walk down the street and Tommy is kept in Mystika's grasp. They go to the police station and they see it is deserted. Mystika said, “Where's the cops?” Larry said, “Did they have cops in 2003?” George said, “Of course they did. They would come after me all the time.” The gang walks down the street and they see it is deserted. Larry said, “I thought this was a city filled with people." Justice Knight said, "It is supposed to be." A building gets destroyed by a missile and it falls to the ground and crumbles. Cheesy looking robots enter the scene and they fight each other. Larry said, "This is awesome. This is better than that movie we watched at the outpost." More robots enter and they destroy each other. An evil looking villain sees the gang. He said, "Stand down foolish Masons and prepare to get the Keith treatment." Justin and Larry look confused and George and Justice Knight take out their weapons. A heroic man dressed in gold armor that has a gold sword and a brown beard grabs all of Justin's friends and brings them into a back alley just as a plasma beam hits the spot they were on.

They are in the alley and Justin said, "Could you tell us what is going on here?" The man said, "My name is Reddick Goldstar. I am a knight just like your friend over there. The whole world is at war right now." Larry said, "World War III?" Goldstar said, "No, the great Coalition War of 2003. Heroes from all over have come to fight on Coalition Mason and all the villains of the world have come to fight on Coalition Keith. I will take you to our headquarters and explain more. You have a lot to learn but I think you can make valuable members of our Coalition." Larry said, "Great, more complex words I will never understand." The heroes are intrigued by the conflict that they don't notice that Tommy escapes the scene and he runs out on the street. He gets caught by some tuxedo thugs and anime robots. The thug said, "You are coming with us." The thugs drag Tommy down the street.

Felix is in a bright colorful world filled with cartoon characters of all kinds. They live together in peace and harmony. Felix walks around the place and he sees a father cat and a mother cat that look just like him. Felix looks at them and the father said, "Felix. We didn't think we would ever see you again." They hug him. The mother said, "Come on in and have your favorite soda in a tea cup. We are your parents and we sent you to the other world so you can stay safe from the vicious force that lives here." Felix said, "There's a vicious force that lives here?" Felix looks up and there is a dark scary demon looking down on the cartoony world.
